

RICK SMITH CHALLENGE !!

We are celebrating an incredible centennial this month!!

Gary Lockee, a World War II veteran, retired U.S. Navy Captain and one of the Bird Dog Foundation and museum's founders, celebrated his 100th birthday on August 18. His well attended birthday celebration was held at the museum.

To commemorate the occasion, one of the museum's directors, Rick Smith, is challenging each of the National Bird Dog Museum's friends and supporters to send a donation to the museum in Gary's honor.

Without Gary's financial support in acquiring the land and his involvement in promoting participation by bird dog people, the museum would never have become a reality. Gary drove over the entire United States visiting with people to gain their support for the Bird Dog Foundation and museum. He has been active for more than 40 years and both he and his dog are in the Hall of Fame.

Join us in honoring Gary on his 100th Birthday with a donation to the National Bird Dog Foundation and museum!

Thank you,
Rick Smith
